

Düren talks ...

Our city, that's what we all are. We all create our community. Some things we see differently. Maybe we don't always like each other, but we talk. It is important for us to know and to get along with each other. That's why we speak and listen to each other.

LISTENING PROJECT
Participatory project by Rudolf Giesselmann, Hamburg

On the lawn in front of the church next to Schenkelstraße 9, D-52349 Düren
04. 02. - 10. 02. 2019
On weekdays 2 / 4 / 6 pm
Weekend 12 am / 2 pm

The artist Rudolf Giesselmann offers a caravan for dialogues - open on one side.

Simple conversation rules provide for this:
There is time for everyone's topic.
Everyone has their say.
Nobody is interrupted.

4 - 5 people talk to each other.
A dialogue lasts 1 ½ to 2 hours.
The wagon is heated.

What is said stays between the participants in the conversation. Only the topics and photos of the conversations are gathered, to inspire more people, to participate as well and to promote togetherness in Düren.
